Hamburg, 09.10.2007

Dear Vassilis,

This is to confirm that the band MESH was scheduled to play in Athens on december 15th, 2007. Due to private reasons the band could not hold the date any longer. I was informed on September 25th and passed the information on to you on September 26th.

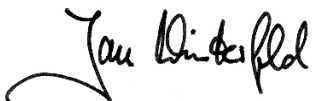

MESH and I are hoping that there will be a new date being scheduled as soon as possible for the new year 2008 and certainly they would be up for playing for the same conditions as already agreed for the December event.

The band and I are pretty sorry for any inconvenience being caused.

We are waiting for any new suggestions as for dates.

Thank you.

Best wishes.

Jan Winterfeld on behalf of MESH
